Principal's Message

Cultures grow on the vine of tradition and it takes an endless amount of history to make even a little tradition. It is through the fibre of traditional values that the fabric of the present is woven and life of the present stands enriched by the vitality of the past.

Punjab - the golden land where holy Gurus have walked, bestowing it with their grace - continues to breathe in the culturally rich environment, rooted in tradition and values. Tradition is not merely the worship of ashes, but the preservation of fire - the fire that ignites the threshold of tomorrow, the fire that builds character, the fire that becomes the touchstone of purity of awakened consciousness of modernity.

The modernity of yesterday is the tradition of today and the modernity of today will be the tradition of tomorrow. So, students, my advice for your young minds is to be curious about history, your past and your tradition. Read more, delve deeper into the annals of history and ruminate on the food of ideas to understand your past so as to be able to understand today and pave a strong foundation for tomorrow to stand upon.

In keeping with the changing modern world and to become global citizens of tomorrow, we are stepping into the changing and challenging academic scenario under the NEP, 2020. Arm yourself with knowledge about the new education framework that aims to catapult you into the demanding professional world, equipped with theoretical, practical, ability-enhancing, skill-providing and value-adding knowledge. And thus, your minds, stretched by new ideas, shall never return to their original dimensions, facilitating the broadening of your horizons, empowering you and cultivating you to the highest possible potential - a tool for fulfilling the immensity of Being.

Education is not a subject and it does not deal in subjects; it is instead the transfer of a way of life.
